

Dear Chairpersons of the FCC,

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.

Because of these practices, Sinclair Broadcasting's license should not be renewed.

I am a high school journalism teacher, and I will be using this as an example abuses of the power of the press. Please exercise your oversight role, and limit or curb Sinclair in its unbridled use of media power.

Sincerely,

Kim Womantree
